Please join US! More spaces available. Pay when you arrive.

Sunday – October 1

Welcome! Host provided dinner. It's gonna be good!

Monday – October 2

Late morning local excursion to shop for fresh, Salinas produce, at a large outdoor stand with fresh everything and more. Maybe to stock up for the week or additions for this evenings potluck. Afternoon, feel free to walk, a very short distance, for otter viewing on the way to the beach or even shorter walk to the quaint town. Lunch options are available very nearby. Potluck dinner -Yankee Swap AND soon to become a new favorite, LEFT, CENTER, RIGHT game that requires 3 single dollar bills.

Tuesday – October 3

Morning Ultra Van meetings, tech-talks. Early afternoon excursion to Martinelli's Apple Cider tour near Watsonville, OR wine tasting at Bargetto Winery, 24 minutes from Moss Landing. Dinner on own.

Wednesday – October 4

11:00 departure. 1 ½ hours on the Elkhorn Slough on a 37-foot electric catamaran ($40 senior rate) where we will see otters, seals, birds and much more. It is a slow, scenic, experience. Only ¼ mile from our campground. Optional, lunch available, across the street, for some moderately priced seafood on the ocean. Dinner on your own.

Thursday – October 5th

Relax, socialize. Our last night dinner is at a family run Mexican food restaurant a very short walk from the KOA.

Friday – October 6th

After check-out, let's drive the famous 17- mile drive, near Carmel, with our Ultravans! It is an $11.25 charge. Some good photo opps and beautiful scenery too.

In The Heart of Monterey Bay!

Moss Landing was established in 1850 as a fishing and farming community. Located in the heart of Monterey Bay, we are surrounded by Moss Landing Harbor where boats, birds, elephant seals, sea lions, seals and otters are abundant.

Come and enjoy the delightful sounds of the harbor and nature. Walk to some of the finest restaurants in the Monterey Bay area. About halfway between Monterey and Santa Cruz.
